WHO GETS HELP

- Tenants who have lost income due to COVID or have extraordinary medical expenses; and
- Earn less than $99k for an individual; and
- Eviction will cause homeless or moving with relatives.

WHO DOES NOT GET HELP

- Tenants facing eviction for reasons other than non-payment of rent.
- Tenants whose inability to pay is not COVID related.

WHAT TENANTS MUST DO

- All adults listed on the lease must submit a sworn statement to their landlord. (See reverse).
- Tenants must continue to pay as much rent as they can.
- Tenants must make their best effort to obtain any rental assistance that might be available to them.

Other important information:

- Tenants are still required to pay rent and can be evicted if it is not paid at the end of the eviction ban.
- Landlords can still charge late fees, fines, interest, and any other penalties in the lease during the ban.
- Both landlords and tenants can be criminally charged for violating the rules of the ban.
I certify under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1746, that the foregoing are true and correct:

1. I have used best efforts to obtain all available government assistance for rent or housing.
2. I either expect to earn no more than $99,000 in annual income for Calendar Year 2020 (or no more than $198,000 if filing a joint tax return), was not required to report any income in 2019 to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, or received an Economic Impact Payment (stimulus check) pursuant to Section 2201 of the CARES Act;
3. I am unable to pay my full rent or make a full housing payment due to substantial loss of household income, loss of compensable hours of work or wages, lay-offs, or extraordinary out-of-pocket medical expenses;
4. I am using best efforts to make timely partial payments that are as close to the full payment as the my circumstances may permit, taking into account other nondiscretionary expenses;
5. If evicted I would likely become homeless, need to move into a homeless shelter, or need to move into a new residence shared by other people who live in close quarters because I have no other available housing options.
6. I understand that I must still pay rent or make a housing payment, and comply with other obligations that I may have under my tenancy, lease agreement, or similar contract. I further understand that fees, penalties, or interest for not paying rent or making a housing payment on time as required by my tenancy, lease agreement, or similar contract may still be charged or collected.
7. I further understand that at the end of this temporary halt on evictions on December 31, 2020, my housing provider may require payment in full for all payments not made prior to and during the temporary halt and failure to pay may make me subject to eviction pursuant to State and local laws.

I understand that any false or misleading statements or omissions may result in criminal and civil actions for fines, penalties, damages, or imprisonment.
